Miss Fannie Moore, of Palmetto hall, Merritt, was in town for a short while on Tuesday.

Her friends were delighted Thursday to see Miss Gertrude E. Mims, of Bonaventure.

On Tuesday, January third, nineteen hundred, to Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Knight, a daughter.

Mr. W. G. Michael is now riding a new Rambler bicycle, which arrived in town last Tuesday.

Miss Ella Singleton left Sunday for Jensen, where she goes to take charge of the school there.

Mr. Jalma Lapham and daughter, Miss Nonie, of Indianola, were visiting friends in town last Friday.

Her friends all regret to learn that Miss Edna Stiling is quite indisposed with a very troublesome throat.

Mr. Joseph Dawson, a very well known and popular drummer of New York, was in town last Friday and Saturday.

Mr. S. D. Geiger, representing the Germania Life Insurance Co., was a visitor in town for several days this week.

Messrs. Bob and Charlie Savage, of Christmas, Fla., were shaking hands with old friends last Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Bobo Dean, of the Lake Worth News, of West Palm Beach, was a visitor up this part of the country a few days ago.

Large quantities of beans are now being shipped daily from the lower river as well as from home. Let the good work continue.

Judge Neuschaefer, who has been coming to Rockledge for a number of years, is here again, and is stopping at the New Rockledge.

A wildcat that has been doing considerable damage to chickens, etc., was caught last Sunday by Mr. Alfred Harrison in a trap.

Col. and Mrs. S. F. Travis, accompanied by Miss Daisy Johnson and Mr. Thurlow Travis, spent last Sunday at their grove at Bonaventure.

Mrs. Amasa Smith and little son, of Pompton Lakes, N. J., arrived on Thursday's train to spend the winter with Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Smith.

After the showers on Sunday and Monday nights, one old fellow was heard to remark, that now the back woods "was pretty tolerable full" of water.

A goodly number of tender plants are looking somewhat the worse for wear since the cold wave of last week, although no material damage has been done.

Mr. Fred Aldrich arrived Tuesday afternoon from New York. Mr. A. will have charge of the launch, Nancy Hanks, which he will run at Rockledge this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Hudson, of Sebastian, last Tuesday, brought up their baby, which was quite sick, for Dr. Hughlett to see. They returned on the afternoon train.

Miss Jennie Merredith, of Pulaski, Tenn., a friend of our very popular school teacher, Miss Fannie C. Carter, has arrived in town for a visit of an indefinite period.

Mr. James Hatter, of City Point, was in town Tuesday. When he returned home his wagon was loaded with baggage for some guests whom he met here and is to entertain for awhile.

Miss E. Bullock arrived in town Tuesday afternoon from Brevard. She spent her vacation driving through the open country and her sojourn in the pine woods.

Mr. Charlie Cleveland, quite a renowned hunter of Merritt, has recently killed three large wild cats, not, however, before they did considerable damage with chickens.

Upon getting up one day last week Mr. F. Lippson discovered that he had had an unknown visitor during the night. Upon investigation it proved that his loss amounted to between four and five dollars.

After spending about two weeks here, Mr. and Mrs. Smith left last Monday for their home in Hempstead, Long Island. They were charmed with their visit here, and we hope to have them again with us next winter.

The Ladies' Aid association met with Mrs. W. Stiling at their last meeting. They will meet with Mrs. J. M. Sanders at their next meeting, and all the ladies are requested to be present and bring their thimbles.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McFarland, of Titusville, arrived in town last Monday. Mr. Mc brought down with him several of his protection tents, and was experimenting with them in some of the orange groves at Rockledge.

The hunters cannot now complain of the want of game; the woods seem to be full. Ducks are also claiming their attention, as hardly a day passes that some do not go across the river to New Found harbor. They return well laden.

Mrs. G. W. Shelly, of Janesville, Wis., will spend the winter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Hardee. Mr. and Mrs. Hardee's other married daughter, Mrs. Gingras, was expected to spend the winter here, but now her coming is doubtful. She and her husband are at present at Richmond, Va.

For some time past the Spartan has been having trouble with her machinery. On Tuesday she broke down at Indianola, and was until dark getting back to this port. She spent some little time here before going on to Eau Gallie; and in all probability it was quite late before she reached her destination.

Cocoa has again been compelled to bring out her mourning, for another one of the canine residents has "passed the portal." This time it is Prince, the greyhound, belonging to Mr. Albert A. Taylor. For several months Prince has been ill and has suffered greatly. His demise occurred last Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Thompson, of Dublin, Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. A. Brand, of Worthington, Ohio, have moved into town and are very pleasantly located at the Gould cottage. These gentlemen, with their wives, have been for some little time at Indianola, but decided to come over on this side of the river. We are very glad to welcome them in our midst.

After spending very pleasantly some time in Cocoa, Mr. and Mrs. Alden Howell, Sr., and their son, Alden, Jr., left last Friday for West Palm Beach, where they will spend a week before going to Cuba. They will return to Florida via Tampa, so as to take a look at both coasts of Florida. They were charmed with the Indian river portion, and it is very probable they will return next winter.

On coming up from Rockledge Sunday morning, Mr. Dyal found the body of a young man, who had arrived a day or so before and was boarding at Mr. Dunn's restaurant, lying in the road. Mr. Dyal stopped his horse, put the young man into his buggy, brought him on up in town and carried him to Mrs. Thomas'. Dr. Hughlett was summoned, and found him unconscious from the effects of a fit. He regained consciousness after awhile and gave his name as J. H. Hammett, of Ormond. After that, he appeared to be fully recovered.

Mrs. C. L. Faber and Miss Faber, of Sharpes, were visiting Mrs. A. V. Lansing for a few days this week.

Dr. Hebard has been under the weather with rheumatism, but is expected to be about soon again as usual.

The recent warm rains are starting a growth on our citrus fruit trees, and more are being set out in grove form.

The card parties at the Avilah rooms will be reorganized and pleasant times are looked forward to by the members.

Miss Bessie Hodgson is laid up with a severe cold, preventing her attendance at school. Dr. Hebard has the case in hand.

Mr. Adams, of Melbourne, has a class in music in Eau Gallie. This gentleman is highly recommended and is a most successful teacher.

All the launches that were housed in Hodgson Bros' yard are in commission but one, that owned by a gentleman living in Washington, D. C.

Ezra Hebard, Frank Young and Harry Scott have just bagged the largest wildcat of the season. The boys caught the animal in a coon trap on the Aspinwall place.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Gifford and Mr. Arthur Gifford, of Birmingham, Ala., have been staying at the Hotel Granada for a week past. They left for points south on Monday.

Capt. McNab and First Mate Booth have much improved the sailing qualities of the Frolic by putting in a centerboard. The owners will now probably add a cabin and quarters for the crew.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Smailes are now in Eau Gallie. Their home is in Aetna Green, Ind., and this is their third or fourth winter south. They have a most comfortable houseboat now moored in our harbor which will be utilized for a trip down the coast.

The steamer St. Sebastian will be in commission shortly and will run from Rockledge to Palm Beach, one of the most pleasant tourist trips on the whole coast. It is expected that this line will carry a large portion of the tourist and pleasure travel this season.

MELBOURNE.

Dr. Davis and family are recent arrivals, and are located in the Bowyer cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Powell left Tuesday for Merritt, where Mrs. Powell will visit for a few weeks.

Rev. E. W. Butler went to the metropolis last week to meet a sister who will visit him this winter.

Mrs. W. J. Nesbitt, of Eau Gallie, came down last Friday and remained over Sunday visiting friends here.

Miss Gladys Stewart returned Monday from Daytona, where she had been spending the holidays with her grandparents.

The M. E. and Congregational churches are observing the week of prayer this week, alternating services in the two churches.

Capt. Benj. Hogg anchored his fine schooner yacht E. C. L. off the city dock a few hours last Friday en route to the county seat.

A pleasant dance was given at Hotel Carleton last Saturday evening for the benefit of the East Coast chautauqua regatta prize fund.

Mr. Southwick and family, of So. Dakota, arrived last week and are pleasantly domiciled in J. T. Hogg's pretty residence for the winter.

Mr. L. C. Moore, of Ercildoune, Roseland, came up in his fine launch Tuesday to meet Mrs. Moore returning from her summer's outing in the east.

Mr. M. F. Webb, whose arrival was chronicled last week, died suddenly Monday of broncho pneumonia. The remains were shipped to New Jersey on Wednesday.

Fred C. Irwin and family have arrived from Chicago, much to the delight of their many Melbourne friends. They will be located this season in Mr. Irwin's Melbourne avenue cottage.

Republican county convention was held at Stewart's hall last week to elect delegates to the state and congressional conventions, to be held at St. Augustine, Jan. 19th. The following delegates were elected: State—J. T. Hogg, C. T. McCarty, C. H. Stewart, R. W. Goode, C. J. Schoonmaker; 2nd congressional—C. T. McCarty, R. W. Goode, J. T. Hogg, W.

Keep Coughing

We know of nothing better to tear the lining of your throat and lungs. It is better than wet feet to cause bronchitis and pneumonia. Only keep it up long enough and you will succeed in reducing your weight, losing your appetite, bringing on a slow fever and making everything exactly right for the germs of consumption. Stop coughing and you will get well.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

cures coughs of every kind. An ordinary cough disappears in a single night. The racking coughs of bronchitis are soon completely mastered. And, if not too far along, the coughs of consumption are completely cured.

Ask your druggist for one of

Dr. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral Plaster.

H. H. Gleason, C. J. Schoonmaker. The county organization was continued with the same officers. Resolutions of congratulation and approval of the administration and demand for protection on citrus fruits, pineapples, etc., were passed. Among prominent Republicans present were Capt. C. J. Schoonmaker, Cocoa; Hon. C. T. McCarty, Ankona; W. H. H. Gleason, Eau Gallie; Rev. Wilson, Rockledge; Jas. T. Hogg, Jacksonville; C. W. Bolte, and H. C. Starck, Malabar.

BANYAN.

The people of this section are glad that the Rev. M. Lane has been returned to the work here. This gentleman certainly has built up the church in Banyan and Brantley.

Plenty of rain has fallen this week and the booming of the surf reminds us of old times, of warm winters and good times. We hope and trust the return of these good old warm winters are with us again.

Despite the antics of Old Boris last week we are planting, picking and shipping every day, and prices are going up. All we need is a few commission men to help us place our stuff and possibly a new vault to the bank to accommodate our plethora purses. Yes, sir.
